

I oppose the effort to expand the Low Power FM program. There is a lot of value in national and regional FM services such as K-LOVE. K-LOVE is a positive force in my community. KLOVE offers postive and encouraging programming. If forced off air in my community, thousands of people would miss what has become a standard part of their day, including mine. I believe that the services provided by K-LOVE is in the public interest.

Benjamin Adams
Odessa, Texas